

Richard C. Hsia
Executive Vice President & General Counsel
WRM America

Richard C. Hsia is Executive Vice President & General Counsel of WRM America, which specializes in risk financing, risk management and risk solutions for clients in the public, private and nonprofit sectors.

Prior to joining WRM America in 1995, Mr. Hsia served as Deputy Superintendent of Insurance for the State of New York, where he played integral roles in developing and implementing many state, interstate and international initiatives on insurance and insurance regulation.

Prior to his public service, Mr. Hsia was in private practice with the Wall Street law firm of Cahill Gordon & Reindel, where he dealt with financial services, multinational commercial transactions, science and technology, and complex litigation.

Mr. Hsia was named a Harlan Fiske Stone Scholar at Columbia Law School, which awarded his J.D. degree. Mr. Hsia is a Phi Beta Kappa graduate of Columbia College, where he earned his B.A. degree. He is a Columbia University Seminarian on China/International Business and serves on the Columbia Class Agent Council.

He is also a Senior Partner in the law firm of Congdon, Flaherty, O'Callaghan, Reid, Donlon, Travis & Fishlinger. Admitted to the New York State Bar and the Federal district and appellate courts, Mr. Hsia is a member of the Federal Bar Council, American Bar Association, New York County Lawyers Association, and New York State Bar Association.

A David Rockefeller Fellow, Mr. Hsia is a member of the Foreign Policy Association and New York Academy of Sciences. Following September 11, 2001, Mr. Hsia served as a member of the New York City World Trade Center Insurance Task Force, helping New York City to address unprecedented risk ramifications in the aftermath of 9/11.

Recognized as a leading expert in risk financing, insurance and insurance regulation, Mr. Hsia has written and spoken on a wide range of topics, addressing many different audiences, including testimony before legislative and regulatory bodies, throughout the United States and abroad.

Among his civic and community activities, Mr. Hsia is Chairman of the Board and President of the Future Leadership Foundation, Inc., a §501(c)(3) philanthropy whose mission is to help young people overcome health and education obstacles. He also serves on the Board of Directors of the Chinese American Insurance Association and of the Asian American Federation.
