Press release for OCA- WHV $10,000 Donation (3rd round) to fight the COVID-19 pandemic

Date: April 7th , 2021

OCA Westchester and Hudson Valley (OCA WHV) announced today that it has donated another $10,000 to the organizations below in the Greater New York area to help fight the COVID-19 Pandemic:

- Chinatown Manpower Project
- Asian American Federation
- Charles B. Wang Center in Flushing
- Feeding Westchester
- Min Kwan Center for Community Action

This is the third round of donations from OCA WHV since the first donation in April 2020. In total, OCA-WHV has donated $30,000 to local organizations in need.

As the pandemic is prolonged, local hospitals, food banks, and community centers continue to need our support. If you would like to join us for future donations, please go to our website, oca-whv.org, to make a tax-deductible donation to our COVID-19 - program.

During this unprecedented time, OCA WHV is proud to serve the community. With the recent rise in anti-Asian hate crimes and bias incidents impacting AAPI communities, we commit to be strong and urge you to join us to stand together, to speak up, and to stop this racism and violence.

For further information, contact Grace Pan at (914) 468 4936, president@oca-whv.org, or the OCA national website ocanational.org.
