What is OCA

OCA is a national organization dedicated to advancing the social, political and economic well-being of nearly 14 million Asian Pacific Americans in the United States. Founded in 1973 by Chinese Americans, OCA, with headquarters in Washington, DC, now has over 80 chapters and affiliates across the nation.

OCA seeks to:

- Advocate for social justice, equal opportunity and fair treatment;
- Promote civic participation, education, and leadership;
- Advance coalitions and community building; and
- foster cultural heritage.

To achieve these goals, OCA is engaged in organizing its over 80 chapters and affiliates across the nation to develop both leadership and community involvement. OCA chapters and organizational and college affiliates are establishing strong local programs in all parts of the country.

OCA's base in Washington, DC gives the national office an effective vantage point for monitoring legislation and policy issues affecting Asian Pacific Americans. In addition, OCA is able to build national support and to work in coalition with other national groups around issues affecting Asian Pacific Americans.

OCA takes no collective position on the politics of any foreign country, but instead focuses on the welfare and civil rights of Asian Pacific Americans in the United States.
