Embracing the hopes and aspirations of Asian Pacific Americans

OCA Student Leadership Award

Description:

The Student Leadership Award is an annual merit award which recognizes the achievements of outstanding Asian American student leaders from area high schools and language schools. This award is sponsored by the Westchester-Hudson Valley chapter of OCA, the foremost organization in the nation advocating for social justice for Asians in America. Several awards of $200 will be granted in 2018.

Recipients of the Student Leadership Awards will be honored at the annual OCA Dynamic Achievers Awards Gala at the DoubleTree by Hilton Hotel in Tarrytown on November 3, 2018. Awardees are considered the youthful counterparts of Dynamic Achievers from the local Asian community recognized by OCA each year, among them Oscar-winning director Ang Lee, AIDS researcher Dr. David Ho (1996 Time Magazine Man of the Year), and the Honorable Elaine L. Chao, U.S. Secretary of Transportation.

Eligibility:

High school juniors and seniors who are of Asian American descent or non-Asians who demonstrate a keen interest in Asian language and culture.

Criteria:

- 1) Demonstrable leadership in school activities and in the community
- 2) Academic excellence
- 3) Interest in Asian culture and/or commitment to Asian American social concerns.

Application materials:

- 1) Application form completed by student
- 2) Current academic transcript
- 3) Summary of extracurricular activities including community service and cultural activities particularly those relating to the Asian community
- 4) One-page personal statement describing career and educational goals
- 5) Two letters of recommendation (*letter from guidance counselor or school administrator necessary)

Deadline: October 8, 2018
